

Would you like to get involved in the March 3, 2024 municipal by-election? The Town of Cowansville's electoral officer is looking for election officers to work on polling day, March 3, as well as at the advance poll on February 25.

In order to guarantee the integrity of the democratic process and, above all, to ensure that citizens will be able to vote with ease, the participation of a large number of people is required to fill all available positions.

Staff will need to be present at polling stations from approximately 8:45 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.. Training is mandatory for all election workers. Anyone over the age of 16 who is reliable, available, enjoys working with the public and is looking for an unusual experience can apply by filling in the form below.
